MRS. EDDY'S BODY MAY REST IN CHURCH

Funeral Will Be Held Wednesday From Former Residence; Body May Be Interred in Mother Church

Simple Ceremony Will Mark Last Services Held for Leader of the Christian Science Faith

BOSTON, Dec. 5.—The officials of the Mother Church of the Christian Science denomination decided today that the funeral of Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder of the church, who died Saturday night, would take place at her residence Thursday. The services will be simple, in deference to Mrs. Eddy's wishes.

It is understood there will be prayers and bible reading with selections from the Christian Science text book.

Her only son, George W. Glover, accompanied by his daughter, Mary, and son George Jr., started from Lead, S. D., last night. Glover cannot reach Boston before tomorrow night.

Alfred Farlow of the Christian Science Publishing Company said neither the time nor the place of the funeral had been decided upon. He admitted that in deference to Mrs. Eddy's well-known taste for simplicity it was likely the services would be private, consisting probably of prayer and reading from the Bible, with selections from "Science and Health."

"Only her relatives, members of the household and the officials of the church, are expected to attend the burial," said Farlow.

BURIAL AT TILTON.

Before leaving his home in South Dakota, Glover said he believed his mother's burial would be at Tilton, N. H., where her husband, George W. Glover, is buried.

A woman in high standing in the Christian Science Church in Concord, N. H., who refused to consent to the use of her name, voiced the belief of many scientists here that Mrs. Eddy's remains would be buried in the mother church at Boston."

WILL HAVE NO SUCCESSOR.

Ebenezer J. Foster Eddy of Waterbury, Vt., Mrs. Eddy's adopted son, is expected to be present at the funeral.

When asked last night who would succeed Mrs. Eddy as the head of the church Alfred Farlow said: "I don't know that any one will succeed her. Everything will go on as usual."

The statement given out by Eugene R. Cox for the twelve churches in his city, says the work will go on smoothly. "Mrs. Eddy," he said, "never preached that there was no material death, though she did predict the ultimate conquest of death in time to come, and there need be no difficulty in the minds of Christian Scientists in reconciling the physical fact of her death with their belief in death itself." The church of Christian Science in

TETRAZZINI WINS; SPEEDS TO COAST

Famous Songbird and Managers Defeat Hammerstein; to Appear in Oakland Next Week

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—Just now received a telegram from New York which will bring joy to the hearts of music lovers and tears to the eyes of Madame Tetrazzini, who will be overwhelmed with thankfulness at the prospect of opening in San Francisco next Monday night. The dispatch was from "Dad" Leahy, saying:

"We have won our case" and adding that the noted singer with her managers will open in the Metropolitans' new building, located on the corner of Market and Kearny streets, on Sunday evening.

Thus there has ended one of the most remarkable legal tangles which has ever entangled its meshes a grand opera singer who has been determined to burst through all bonds and sing in the city which she loves better and which loves her with more ardor than any other in the world.

HAMMERSTEIN SET ASIDE.

Today's decision, the details of which are not known at this time, sets aside the claim of Oscar Hammerstein to the right to present Madame Tetrazzini in this country.

The distinguished singer had a contract with Hammerstein for five years,

Parliamentary Elections Bring About Few Changes

LONDON, Dec. 5.—A rush of Nationalist members returning unopposed today again placed the coalition group, or "people's party," as some Liberal papers prefer to call it, on a numerical equality with the Opposition Unionists.

The opposing caps have now eighty-one seats each in the new parliament.

At 3:30 o'clock the state of the election was as follows:

Government coalition: Liberals, 58; Irish Nationalists, 15; Labor members, 5; total, 88.

Opposition Unionists, 81.

Opposition exchange, which had affected big Unionist gains, was affected adversely by the result of Saturday's pollings.

Unidentified Man Leaps To His Death in Waves

A well-dressed man of about 30 or 35 years of age committed suicide at about 1 o'clock this morning by jumping overboard from the Key Route boat.

His cries were heard by Captain Nelson and Leichardt H. Peterson of the Key Route and just before a landing they gathered up all the life-preservers in sight and threw them to the man, but he spurned them all.

Doomed Man May Yet Escape Electric Chair

Three of the preservers fell over his head, but he reached up and pulled them off.

A boat was then lowered but no trace of him could be found. After spending about half an hour in a search, a soft velvet hat bearing the initials "M. M." was picked up and turned over to the coroner.

Incidentally what was stated by the boy was finished by Sydney Ayres, leading man of the cast, from leading man down, to indulge in a series of sharp crack actions on both sides of the footlights for a minute shortly before, and for several minutes immediately after the close of the third act of "The Battle."

Porch Climber Robs While Family Dines

Thief Gets Away With Jewelry Valued At $285; Was Frightened Away.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—While the family were at dinner last evening a porch climber gained entrance to a third-story window in the residence of J. R. Jacobl of the Pacific Telephone Company, 1829 Pacific avenue, and stole jewelry to the value of $28.

That he did not completely ran across the upper floors is due, it is believed, to the approach of a servant, who probably frightened him off.

Bobsled Strikes Auto And Two Boys Killed

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 5.—Climbing down the long and steep Allegheny hill east of this city on a fifteen-foot bobsled, Harold Mayer, 13 years old, and Charles Braehler, 15 years old, were almost instantly killed when the sled crashed into an ascending automobile.

SAN ANDREAS, Cal., Dec. 5.—Joseph H. Master, merchant and postmaster of North Branch, ended his life today by shooting himself in the head. Ill-health is the supposed cause of his act.

One low, bird-like whistle from a book: was intermingled with the father of a more-in-sorrow-than-inanger curtain speech by Ayres, followed by sympathetic applause from a large part of the audience. In addition the principal act of the play was spoiled.

FUN NOT CONFINED TO STAGE.

It has long been the humor of the male members of the cast, from leading man down, to indulge in a series of sharp crack actions on both sides of the footlights for a minute shortly before, and for several minutes immediately after the close of the third act of "The Battle."

M'KINLAY IS TO BURN AEROPLANE ON VICTIM'S GRAVE

Congressman Will Accept Offer of President; to Head the Registry Department

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 5.—The "Union to day" says:

Duncan E. McKinlay, congressman from this district, will become assistant Postmaster General of the United States next spring, when his term as representative expires. The place was offered to him by the President before he returned to California last month and McKinlay has decided to accept. He so stated last night over the long distance phone at his home at Santa Rosa.

McKinlay will have charge of the department including the registry division, magazines, etc.

ON WAY EAST.

Congressman McKinlay will start East tomorrow. He said last night that he would introduce a bill appropriating $100,000 for Sacramento River work in accordance with the recommendation of the government engineers, and so his utmost to get it through Congress at this session.

Asked regarding the contest for the Chico postmastership, he said: "I have five applicants for the place. No decision has been made, and none would be until he had investigated the present standing of Postmaster Major Williams at Washington.

It is rumored about the school that an effort will be made to have every girl in the school adorned in curls tomorrow and that as many as are able will dress themselves with bobble skirts.

Principal Angel Williams, it is alleged, stated today that unless every girl ceases to dress conspicuously there will be a general suspension. Only a few of the fainter-hearted girls have altered their style of

LOVETT REMAINS CHIEF OF LINES

Will Spend Time Traveling to Inspect; Kruttschnitt for Resident Head in New York City

SACRAMENTO, December 5.—Local officials of the Southern Pacific have information of impending changes in the Harriman lines.

According to unofficial information from those who are on the inside in railroad affairs, the following is the list of important changes which will take place January 1:

JUDGE LOVETT, present chief of the Harriman lines, will remain at the head of the railroad system, but will spend his time traveling and inspecting the roads.

JULIUS KRUTTSCHNITT, head of the operating department at present, will succeed to the position of Judge Lovett, as resident chief of the Harriman lines at New York.

SUPERINTENDENT OF MOTIVE POWER SMALL will succeed to the position left vacant by Kruttschnitt.

SUPERINTENDENT OF MOTIVE POWER T. W. HEINTZELMAN of the Sacramento division will be appointed to Small's present position.

L. S. PRATT, master mechanic at the local shops, will succeed Heintzman.

DOCK BEAR, foreman of road engines on the coast division, is slated to succeed Pratt.

The fact that important changes among the officials of the Southern Pacific were contemplated on the first of the year has been persistently rumored.

The report that Small, Heintzman and others were to be relieved of their present positions came out a few weeks ago in the shape of a story to the effect that these officials were to be let out of the Southern Pacific service. This was generally disbelieved for the reason that those named as being slated for removal have generally been understood to be men of the highest standing with the rulers of the Southern Pacific.

INSURRECTION IS WOMAN HELD FOR STILL RAGING GRANDCHILD'S MURDER IN MEXICO

Many of Natives Flee Across Border to Avoid Army Accused of Chloroforming the Infant and Placing Its Body in Suitcase.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Dec. 5.—News from across the border concerning the insurrection in the northern parts of Mexico continues to be received in Douglas. Mexican received a letter today from Chihuahua, saying his brother had been executed in that city for participation in the rebel attack at midnight last Friday.

The letter says the rebels got away with one old-style cannon and two machine guns from the College of Arts and Trades.

MEXICANS CROSS LINE.

Many Mexicans are moving across the line from interior towns into the United States to avoid impressment into the army. One arriving Mexican says Madero is in a village of Guan, a remote mountain town, drilling there. It is said the rebel army is being supplied with the same rations as the government troops.

The bodies of rebels are reported found in different portions of the mountains, following battles with the government troops. They had evidently died from lack of surgical aid in which the rebel forces are probably inefficient.

Whales With Whiskers Discovered by Explorer

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—Whales with whiskers are not at all numerous in this part of the world. In fact, it is more than likely that any of the old whales along the North Atlantic coast would be the size of the huge animals, as proven by Professor Andrews as proof that whales at one time were hair-coated animals which lived on land and propelled themselves on land with flippers and tail as they do at present. The skeleton structure of certain species of whales bears out this theory.

The discovery of these patches of hair, which are found growing in hairy tufts, beneath the jaws of the huge animals, is considered by Professor Andrews as proof that whales at one time were hair-coated animals which lived on land and propelled themselves on land with flippers and tail as they do at present. The skeleton structure of certain species of whales bears out this theory.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Perhaps the most expensive dinner service ever made in this country will be shipped from this city today to former United States Senator W. A. Clark of Montana for use in his new home. This service, complete for a party of twenty-four, contains 900 pieces, each specially designed to harmonize with the dining room, and it is said to cost $100,000.

PLOT TO LOOT BIG STORE FOILED

Six Burglars Capture and Bind Watchman, But Victim is Discovered.

Man is Found Bound and Gagged and Thieves Fly When Alarm is Given.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—What appears to have been a bold plot by six burglars to capture the three watchmen of one of the large department stores and loot the place was frustrated at an early hour today when one of the watchmen was accidentally found, bound and gagged, and an alarm turned in, which caused the hurried departure of the perpetrators.

The scene of the attempted robbery was at the Broadway Department store, in the center of the downtown section, and was participated in by six men, according to the story related by Watchman W. C. Woody.

The latter was found on the third floor of the building shortly after midnight by J. A. Robinson, another watchman. Woody, who was gagged and helpless, said that he had been suddenly attacked several minutes before by six men in the dimly lighted kitchen department of the store.

He was unable to give any clear description of the men, who wore masks, and they escaped before the police could surround the building.

STEAMER NORTHERN LIKELY TO BE FLOATED

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 5.—With fair weather conditions the steamer Northern ashore since Friday morning at Faial Bay on the west coast of San Juan Island, can be floated in about five days. This was the statement made by R. R. Pierson, superintendent of the Alaska Steamship Company, who has been standing by the wreck since Friday night.

CUDAHY'S INCOME ALL WAS GIVEN TO CHARITY

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Examination of the estate of the late Michael Cudahy, former wealthy packer, disclosed the fact yesterday that church and philanthropic enterprises have been receiving virtually all his vast income for three years. Attorney Nobel E. Judah, counsel for the estate and the packer's sons and daughter, are now trying to place a value on the estate.

Despite his many benefactions, friends state that Cudahy left nearly $20,000,000.

'MORNING AFTER' CLEVER SKIT AT THE BELL THEATER

HAZEL DRAKE in "The Morning After" at the Bell.

In Charles Wayne's new comedy skit, "The Morning After," which is headlining the new bill at the Bell Theater this week, there is general mixup of everything entertaining that induces laughs in copious quantities. Its title might suggest to one that it is a sort of "After" act, and so it is, but throughout its comical situations and humorous lines there is never the thought or suggestion of anything that might be termed vulgar. At any rate it is nothing more serious than a sequence of laughs, good wholesome amusement without any attempt to point a moral. Charles Wayne is naturally the central figure and furnishes the motif around which the incidents of the play are built up. He is ably seconded by pretty and vivacious Hazel Drake, a light-hearted and plump-souled sprite, who lends color and charm to the little comedy.

Then there is a most pretentious attraction, staged most artistically about the two central figures, my own idea of the new white grape wine vinegar of the Italian-Swiss Colony, is as clear as crystal, has a rich flavor and is absolutely pure. HILL IN PEACE RIVER.

EDMONTON, Alberta, Dec. 5.—By the incorporation of the Peace River and Great Western Railroad, the Hill interests have secured an entry into the Peace River country. The route is from Edmonton to a northwestern corner of Alberta and from there will be continued to Dawson City.

MOVE INTO PROSPERITY

"He may move from adversity into prosperity or from a state of abundance to one of meagreness. He may be called from radiant happiness into an experience of sadness, or he may pass from a life of ease and luxury to one of poverty and privation. He may pass through a series of trials and tribulations, or he may painfully travel that road faced in the opposite direction. In countless ways these changes come, but whether they spell progress or merely restlessness, uncertainty, depends upon our following or forsaking the pillar of cloud and of fire.

Oakland Hotel Raided; Crusade Is Declared

Initiating a crusade to clean out the Oakland hotels which have been harboring the women of the half world, the court pleading not guilty before Judge Gear, sitting for Judge Samuels this morning in the absence of the latter, as delegate to the convention of the Bar Association, the crusade. Three of the association-appointed hall, as did the Japanese, charged with visiting such a place. The women were charged with vagrancy. They are Mary Anderson, Lola Montez, Rosalie Miller and Mamie Dorothy.

It is intended that the reputable hotels shall be allowed to be openly used as respectable houses, and an enforcement of the law will be attempted by drawing a rigid line between legitimate business in Oakland cafes. Other hotels are under surveillance, and it is probable that several other raids will be conducted within the next few weeks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—After escaping late last night from the trans-Pacific liner Manchuria, fifteen Chinese were recaptured early today by four custom officers.

According to the immigration authorities, who are preparing an official report, the blame for the escape is laid at the door of the steamship company's officials. At the time of the escape the steamer was lying at her dock.

Among the Chinese who escaped were several women dressed in male attire.

this city and elsewhere will run on smoothly on its own momentum. Mrs. Eddy gave it such an impulse and placed it on such an enduring basis that it can adequately guide itself. "There can be no question who is to succeed Mrs. Eddy. She can have no successor. Christian Scientists the world over universally regard her as the discoverer and founder of the religion she taught and there cannot be two founders of a religion."

DIED SATURDAY NIGHT.

Mrs. Eddy died Saturday night, the aged leader of the Christian Science faith had been ill for several days, according to Medical Examiner George L. West, who was called yesterday afternoon and viewed the body and it was he who pronounced pneumonia as the cause of death.

Members of her household, most of whom are Christian Science healers, sanguine of her ultimate recovery, despite her 89 years, gave her regular treatment, but no medical physician was called and she passed away quietly at 10:45 o'clock Saturday night. Up to Friday she had taken her usual daily drives, even transacting business on Thursday.

Judge Clifford P. Smith, first reader of the mother church, gave the first news of Mrs. Eddy's death at the close of yesterday morning's service. Alfred Farlow of the Christian Science publication committee gave the statement to the press.

MIND CLEAR TO LAST.

With the aged woman at the time of her death were her secretary, Adele L. Dickey; her corresponding secretary, Rev. Irving C. Tomlinson; Mrs. Laura E. Sergeant, Calvin A. Frye and Mrs. Elsa S. Rathvon.

According to Alfred Farlow, Mrs. Eddy left no final messages, though her mind was clear up to the last. The announcement of her death came as a shock to nearly every member of the congregation at the mother church yesterday morning, as few, if any, knew of her weakened condition.

DEATH IS ANNOUNCED.

The service was conducted in the usual manner and was read as usual by Judge Smith and Mrs. Leland T. Powers, closing with a hymn and the reading of the "Scientific Statement of Being." Just before the benediction, however, Judge Smith said:

"I shall now read part of a letter, written by our reverend leader and printed on page 135 of 'Miscellaneous Writings' for Students: You may be looking to see me in my accustomed place with you, but this you must no longer expect. When I retired from the field of labor it was a departure, socially, publicly and finally, from the routine and from such material modes as society and our societies demand. Rumors are running nothing more, and I am with you on the field of battle, taking forward marches, broader and higher views and with the hope that you will follow."

"All our thoughts should be given to the absolute demonstration of Christian Science. You can well afford to give me up, since you have in my last revised edition of 'Science and Health' your teacher and guide."

"Although I am 'lines,' said Judge Smith, 'written years ago, they are true today, and will continue to be true. But it becomes my duty to announce that Mrs. Eddy passed from our sight last night at a quarter before 11 o'clock at her home on Chestnut Hill.'

BORN JULY 16, 1821.

Mrs. Eddy was born in Bow, N. H., July 16, 1821, and was the youngest of the six children of Maria and Abigail Ambrose Baker. Mrs. Eddy's father, with his brother James, inherited the family's land in the adjoining towns of Concord and Bow. Mrs. Eddy's mother was Abigail Ambrose of Pembroke. Her sister was the grandmother of Governor Eliot Smith of Georgia. Mrs. Eddy's sisters and brothers were Sarah Abbott, George Abigail and Martha. All of the children of Maria and Abigail Baker survived. Mary was a delicate child, and being the youngest of the family, was not obliged to do hard work. Her great ambition when she attended school near her home was that she might grow up and write a book. She first tutored with a church while she was young, and became a member of the First Congregational church of Concord.

FREED HUSBAND'S SLAVES.

Major George Washington Glover, a young business man of Charleston, S. C., met Mary Baker in Massachusetts, and they soon were married, leaving soon after the ceremony for the South Carolina home of the groom. Mary Baker Glover was much interested in the quest of emancipation. After finding her husband's slaves she wrote letters to friends and to the papers, agitating the question of emancipation to such an extent that her husband feared for her safety.

Major Glover, while at Wilmington, N. C., was stricken with yellow fever a few months after his marriage to Mary Baker, and died after an illness of three days. After that Mrs. Glover went to her father's home in Tilton, N. H., where a son was born to her. This boy remained with her there until his father married again, when it became necessary for the child to be placed in the care of a nurse.

VALID FOR YEARS.

In 1852 Mary Baker married Dr. Daniel Patterson, a dentist, who lived in Franklin, a village near Tilton. Three years after her marriage the Pattersons moved to North Groton, N. H. Dr. Patterson lost all his property, there was forced to move to Rumney. Mrs. Patterson was ill much of the time and became bedridden for months at a time. Dr. Patterson later deserted his wife.

During the time that Mrs. Patterson was bedridden at Rumney she studied the Bible closely, and especially those references to cures. Mrs. Eddy's claim that for years before she became a Christian Scientist she had been searching for a spiritual cause for disease and a spiritual method of cure was proved. It is claimed by the curing by Mrs. Baker with Christian Science methods of a boy relished by large part of the house as innocent relaxation after the week's rehearsals and the tedium of formal nights, exits and entrances.

Perhaps the boy in the gallery yesterday afternoon fell naturally, though unfortunately, into the Sunday afternoon "cut-up" spirit.

But he opened up at the most disastrous juncture. Not being an actor, he timed his merriment in the most bungling fashion. "Philip Ames," alias Sydney Ayres, had just been told that he was not Philip Ames at all, but Phillip Baggleton, son of John J. Ayres, and that other things than Philip was heir to several million dollars. Then came a sort of transfixed sort of pause, with neither motion nor word on the part of Phillip. It was apparently understood by all of the audience except one small boy that the pause was a legitimate one for the proper absorption of several millions, in addition to a father.

In hesitation he was lost. The whistling boy was heard first. The bird-like notes brought a laugh from the "younger set," both upstairs and down.

The laugh brought what followed. Ayres or Phillips, continued to look steadily at his millionaire father (Henry Shumer) for moment, while his face reddened, and then transferred his glance to the gallery, as follows:

"If you think you can do it any better than I can, come on up here."

This was followed by further concerted laughter, during which a hiss was distinguishable.

MERELY "CATTLE."

Ayres then addressed himself to a member of the orchestra, his one-word speech being:

"Cattle!"

And he didn't mean the musician.

The "big scene" was spoiled, and nothing but a perfumed performance of the remainder of the act seemed possibly to be given.

Indeed in "The Battle," the contention between capitalistic and socialist principles, was lost sight of in the uncertainty as to which had won in the unprogrammed tilt—the audience which laughed or the actor who repiled with withering sarcasm and names.

The fact was neither had won. Up to that time it was a draw. Nothing that had been started had been finished.

The third act was saved from an ending as blank as its great scene by a shooting at curtain-fall.

The curtain was far from being down upon the incident, however.

Despite the fact that Ayres, or Phillips, had avenged his father's pride and received a stinging bullet in the breast for his pains, he did not answer the first curtain call nor any up the sixth, nor even that. Each time the curtain went up, other members of the cast appeared, or reappeared.

DETRACTORS GET "CALL DOWN."

Tumult demanded Ayres, and a darkened stage answered. Continued uproar brought forth only the orchestra's strains until finally the curtain was pulled back again, and the leading man appeared in front of it. He was greeted with deafening applause, which he stayed with a raised hand. Then he spoke as follows:

"In the two years that I have played in this, my home city, this is the third occasion upon which I have been forced to address an audience under similar circumstances, and ask that it kindly try to appreciate the efforts of the actors in his work. Mr. Bishop has provided one of the finest theaters in the country with good productions, at very low prices.

In her retirement Mrs. Eddy worked for the cause of humanity with the same untiring unselfishness with which in the earlier days of her discovery she had worked to heal its physical infirmities. Her followers will continue to prove their understanding of her teaching by that unity of thought and purpose, through which alone they can prove their gratitude and demonstrate, as she taught them, the healing power of the Christ.

In her retirement Mrs. Eddy was given a trying experience for an actor to be interrupted at the most inopportune part of the play. I don't wish to say that I am angry, but rather that I am hurt. Nevertheless, I will continue with my part and give the best rendition of it that I can."

Ayres speech brought forth more applause, and the fourth act proceeded smoothly.

But it was not witnessed by a certain god of the upper regions of the theater. Dumbfounded at the progressive and dire effects of one brief pucker of lips, he darted from the house, declining a return check.

GEORGETOWN, Colo., Dec. 5.—"I'll bet somebody will die morning," remarked Charles Claire Saturday night, and within five hours he was slain in the presence of his aged mother and his sister, William Claire, his brother, in jail, with family stabbing his brother.

The quarrel is said to have arisen over his sister's attendance at a lance Silver dance. His going was opposed by William, who, upon her return, is said to have attempted to slay her and when Charles attempted to protect her the fatal shot occurred. Both men were reported to have been drinking heavily.

TETRAZZINI TO SING IN OAKLANDNo Successor Will Be Named for Mrs. Eddy

BOSTON, Dec. 5.—The reticence of the Christian Science leaders and officials, as well as nearly all members of the denomination, to comment on the death of the leader, Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, continued today and no official statement followed those given out yesterday, when the first announcement of her passing was made public.

The fact that the last words, "God is my life," were written by her on a pad of paper on Thursday was confirmed to day and also that her son, George W. Glover, had started east from Lead, S. D., and probably would arrive here Wednesday morning.

Her funeral service will be held Saturday morning, it was intimated today that it might take place Wednesday, probably at her residence.

The church will continue to be managed by a board of directors, which at present consists of A. B. Stewart, Andrew J. V. Dittman, Adam M. Dietrich,

John V. Dittman, and Perry Weidner.

There will be no successor to Mrs. Eddy.

MEYER CRITICIZES MARE ISLAND'S POSITION

Secretary of Navy Makes Sweeping Recommendations in Report of Inspector.

WOULD DISPOSE OF NEW ORLEANS YARDS

Thirteen New War Vessels
Wanted, With $25,000 for Aeroplane Experiments

WASHINGTON, Dec 5.—The results of a careful personal investigation by Secretary George von L. Meyer of many of the navy yards and naval stations are apparent in certain sweeping recommendations for the abolition or modification of the abolition of some of these and the development of others as set out in the secretary's annual report just made public.

Secretary Meyer recommends giving up the disposal of the naval yards at New Orleans, Pensacola, San Juan, Port Royal, New London, Sackets Harbor, Culpeper and Castle. He finds that the average yearly cost of maintaining these stations for the past five years has been $1,622,675, while very little useful work has been performed there.

DISCUSSES SHORTCOMINGS

The secretary discusses the strong points and shortcomings of the various yards at length and incidentally he points out that the United States has 293 many navy yards as Great Britain with at least double the size of ours. Touching the New Orleans yard he says that its position is such that in time of war no large vessels could be sent out on account of the character of the vessel being blocked. The Pensacola navy yard is considered as unnecessary for fleet and as strategically unnecessary. The secretary thinks the Gulf and South Atlantic coasts can best be defended by an effective naval station at Galveston.

Cuba where he came to look at it a year ago he says he provided the expense of about $100,000. This would involve the transfer of the Cuban armada of the Navy or a floating dock and making "from the Aderas" sail an old Peruvian vessel with yellow. He had obtained $10,000 in addition to the jewelry before he was interrupted.

CHASE AFTER INTRUDERS

Determined if possible to capture the intruder, Kingston reached up, pressed a button and coded the apparatus with light. The burglar was too quick for him, however, and before he could jump from his couch had visited the window sill and gained the porch above the front door. The intruder man, nothing daunted, followed but the porch climber was a man of experience and jumping over the railing he had down a post and made his escape.

The only description of him in the hands of the police is that he is a black man, wearing a dark red suit top striped with yellow. He had obtained $10,000 in addition to the jewelry before he was interrupted.

PRISONER CHANGES MIND AND DEMANDS LAWYER

After having twice refused the court's offer to appoint a lawyer to defend him against the charge of burglary preferred against him, declaring that he was capable of conducting his own case, Hubert Smith, colored man, changed his mind on Saturday morning when Superior Judge Brown called the case for trial and demanded an attorney. He also asked for a continuance.

Bulky Brown refused the latter request but consented to continue the matter until this afternoon to give Attorney Phil N. Welsh a chance to familiarize himself with the case.

Smith, who is a fugitive from justice, is immune from attack but is compelled by the history of war

DRY DOCKS NEEDED

Because the Portsmouth and Norfolk dry docks are not as a first class station fit for the supply and repair of small ships and torpedoes operating in the Caribbean Sea the secretary predicts that in the future the cities of the gulf coast will be from their natural security the probable points from which our troops will embark either for the Tropics or Panama for further transit or for service in the Caribbean as may be required.

FORMIDABLE TABLES

A formidable array of tables showing the enormous amount of naval construction work to be done in the Pacific Ocean is presented to justify the application for an increase in the building program in this country.

One of the officers on the board in the world is considerably more within a two per cent than the amount of the new building that will be done in the Pacific.

The new program will be strong in the purchase of a second fleet, including a battleship, which will insure ability to put up and the protection of the fleet in the event of a war especially qualified.

He also recommended the creation of and the present rear admirals so as to conform to foreign naval practice and seem administration.

The rebels which have agitated the country during the past year find themselves in the position of the United States during the Civil War.

Keeping White Floors White

Most housekeepers would prefer to keep the kitchen floor unpainted and in the white," were it not for the labor of keeping such a floor in satisfactory condition. However, the work of scrubbing will be lightened and milk-white floors can be easily attained, by dissolving in each pintful of warm water a tablespoon of Gold Dust washing powder. If scrubbed this way each week old stains that seem to be ground into the wood will soon disappear altogether. This is also excellent for scrubbing stone steps and wood work.

MARRIAGE PAPER RETURNS.

Bryan was at the station to meet the party, and after taking them to the Capital hotel spent more than an hour in locating the deputy of the county clerk's office, who looks after the issuance of marriage licenses. The license was finally obtained, however, and Bryan returned with it to the hotel, where several Shriners were waiting to greet him in the lobby.

During the congratulating one of the Shriners fished the license from Bryan's pocket. "I care for the man," Bryan said, "but I don't care if he falls into the waiting automobile and drives to the home of the Rev. A. D. Sutton, of the Congregational church, when he suddenly discovered the loss of the license. Bell boys, clerks and maids about the hotel were kept busy searching for the license, while the waiting automobile was chugging outside.

INNKEEPER'S SON ARRIVES

Bryan was on the point of going in search of another license, when he thrust his hand into his pocket and found that it had reappeared. It was not until then that he was aware of the prank that had been played upon him.

The marriage ceremony was brief, and Bryan and his bride returned to the hotel, where the gathering of Shriners and other friends were waiting to congratulate them a second time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan returned to San Francisco last night and will take up their home at the Bryan home, 2002 Buchanan street. They will leave shortly for a tour of the South.

Oakland Business Man Back From Long Tour of the Orient

MR. AND MRS. E. A. YOUNG in rickshaws at Shanghai.

From a three months' tour of China and Japan with the commissioners representing the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the Pacific Coast, E. A. Young, president of the Merchants' Exchange and a delegate from the local Chamber of Commerce, returned yesterday on the Manchuria, accompanied by Mrs. Young.

Throughout the whole trip, declares Young, the commissioners were treated in the most cordial manner and in many instances exceptional programs were prepared for them which overshadowed any similar demonstrations ever held before for visitors representing the commercial interests of this or of any other country. On every hand, the Chinese organizations took the greatest interest in the welfare of their visitors and opportunities for investigation of economic conditions either denied foreigners, opened to them with result that the greatest possible good was accomplished for the future manufacturing interests of the Pacific Coast.

INTERESTING TRIP.

"One of the most interesting trips made by the party," Young said today, "was the trip up the Yangtze Kiang river on the ship Kianghsia, which had been specially fitted up for the use of the commissioners by the Chinese Merchants' Steam Navigation Company. We visited Hankow, Wuchang, the site of Boone University, and the Chinese race course, at which place we were served with an elaborate banquet consisting of shark's fins, soup, pigeons' eggs, shark's fins and a varied assortment of other dishes. Chopsticks were provided, as well as spoons, and many were the laug is that went the rounds.

VISITS LARGE CITIES.

"Pekin and all the other large cities usually visited by the tourist were on our itinerary. On October 8 we visited the Imperial Palace, the Prince Regent, our party headed by William J. Calhoun, the American Minister. The affair was a grand spectacle, more brilliant than the firework display at the coronation court. From there we went to the winter palace and banquet followed banquets during the remainder of our journey, up to the grand finale before we set sail from Hong Kong."

With E. A. Young as the other delegate from the Chamber of Commerce was W. H. Welby, accompanied by his wife.

Instead of returning across the Pacific, the latter continued their way to the far east and will make a tour of the world, arriving home several months hence via New York.

PLAY EXPERTS TO CONVENE DEC. 15

First Annual Playground Association Conference to Be Held Across Bay.

The first annual conference of the Playground Association of California will be held in San Francisco, December 15 to 18, with headquarters at the St. Francis hotel. The purpose of the conference is the promotion of playgrounds in California, and the discussion of methods and problems in the organization and administration of playgrounds. Delegates are requested to register immediately on arrival at the secretary's desk, in the Green room on the mezzanine floor of the St. Francis.

A luncheon under the auspices of the Shriners will be given to the members attending the taking of the number of initiates at the capital over the weekend. The latter will arrive on the Western Flyer from the advances of his bride, who reached the capital with her prospective mother-in-law, Mrs. W. J. Bryan, and Miss H. P. Boot, on the El Dorado flyer of the Southern Pacific.

MEETERS PARTY.

Bryan was at the station to meet the party, and after taking them to the Capital hotel spent more than an hour in locating the deputy of the county clerk's office, who looks after the issuance of marriage licenses. The license was finally obtained, however, and Bryan returned with it to the hotel, where several Shriners were waiting to greet him in the lobby.

BLOOD DISEASES CONTAGIOUS TROUBLES

Contagious Blood Poison more thoroughly permeates the system than any other disease. Its infectious virus contaminates every corpuscle and tissue of the circulation, and for this reason its symptoms are of a varied nature. When it enters the blood it is but a short time until the mouth and throat begin to ulcerate, the skin becomes spotted, rashes and eruptive appear on the body, sores and ulcers break out, the hair falls, and frequently nails on hands and feet ticken and come off. Mineral medicines which simply shut the poison up in the system should be avoided, for when such treatment is left off the old disease will break out again, often worse than before. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison permanently, and it does so because it thoroughly purifies the blood. S. S. S. goes into the circulation, and drives out the last trace of the destructive germs, adds richness and vigor to the circulation, and cures the diseased portions of the body back to health. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, without a particle of mineral, and its vegetable ingredients always heal the cure by toning up the stomach and digestive members. SITE FOR TRADES SCHOOL SELECTED

Knight's Valley to Have New Training Institution of State.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 5.—If the $100,000 expensive litigation can be secured to Knight's Valley, Sonoma county, the new State Trades and Training School will be located at that place. The commission which has inspected the several sites offered for the new school, has decided on the Sonoma county site with the approval of Auburn. The question of the title to the Sonoma site may cost that county the institution.

The Knight's Valley site contains 29 acres of partly mountain and partly valley land. A stream which rarely contains less than six or five inches of water runs through part of the land, has a drop of 1200 feet and is capable of developing sufficient electricity to furnish the school with all the power it needs. Part of the land is suited for agriculture and the rest is timber land. There is sufficient wood there for many years to come. The price asked is $15,000.

LOOK UP TITLE.

In looking up the title the commissioners appointed to select the site have discovered that among the owners are several minor heirs, and there is a legal question involved as to whether or not the state can get a clear title. It is found that the title cannot be given absolutely, as the Placer county site will be selected.

The Auburn site is said to be similar in character to that in Sonoma county. Part of the land is heavily wooded and the rest is fertile foothill soil. It also has a stream of water upon it. Being near a town of considerable size, the location is advantageous.

The commission that selected the site is composed of Governor James N. Gillett, Secretary of State Charles P. Curtis, Attorney General T. S. Webb, Senator J. B. Curtin and Assessor F. L. Hawk.

Mrs. Martin Declares Judge Wells Is Crazy

She Also Tells Attorney Tynes
He Has No Wings Sprouting From Him.

Owing to the long probation calendar St. Paul Judge Wells could not resume the trial of Isabella J. Martin until nearly 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. Martin called Detective St. Clare Hodgkin back to the witness stand for further cross-examination and when he was excused Carl Elsasser, of San Francisco, the hand-writing expert, was called to the stand by the prosecution.

Mrs. Martin was on the rampage this afternoon. Once when Judge Wells interrupted her while questioning the witness, Hodgkin was turned upon him fiercely with the remark: "After what you have done to me, I am not prepared for war."

"Judge Wells, you are as crazy as a March hare. Some of your rulings during this trial are proof of this."

A little later an Assistant District Attorney Hynes made some remark about destroying to be fit with the prisoner, whereupon Mrs. Martin looked him over contemptuously and sneeringly and said:

"Huh, I don't see any white wings sprouting from your shoulders Mr. Hynes."

RECALL EXTENDED IN NEW CHARTER

Los Angeles Document Also Advocates "Short Ballot."

LOS ANGELES Cal Dec 5—The "short ballot" and a further extension of the recall are features of the proposed new charter which was submitted today to the revision committee for approval before it is sent to the city council which is expected to order an election for a early date.

The new charter is intended to supersede any instrument adopted only a short time ago, and contains many radical changes. It would reduce the number of elective officers to 20 including the nine councilmen and seven members of the board of education. The terms of the mayor, auditor, assessor and city attorney, the only others heretofore to be elected, are increased from two to four years.

PARTISANSHIP ELIMINATED.

All recognition of partisanship in the appointment of the various boards or commissions is eliminated in the new charter and the recall feature is to apply to all officers elective and appointive. At present the recall can be invoked only against elective officers.

In regard to elections the present provisions for primaries are changed so that any candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast in a primary may be declared elected.

The initiative feature is also extended in scope so that a city council may refer a proposed ordinance to the people on its own motion. It also prescribes that a petition signed by seven per cent of the voters shall be recognized as an order to the council to act on the proposed measure while a petition of 15 per cent of the voters shall be deemed a petition for a resolution to be acted on prior to a regular election within 30 days to call a special election.

Law as initiated can only be amended by a vote of the people. Special elections however may not be held after than every six months.

An citizen upon depositing a bond may demand a recount of the votes cast at any election. In case he loses he must stand all the costs of the recount. In case he wins the cost stands the cost.

Martin was taken to the county jail and Chief Wilson took the child to his own home.

CHOLERA AMONG INSANE

ROME Dec 5—Since the 1st of cholera has been reported from Germany in the last twenty four hours, among the patients in the asylum for the insane one fourth has succumbed. Two are reported from their hospitals.

The plan contemplates a corporation with $ 300,000 capital which will buy out the product of all the members of the association. The corporation will be conducted along the lines of the selling agencies maintained by the raisin growers of the San Joaquin Valley and the orange growers of the Riverside district in California.

Atwell says at present fruit growers lose their chance to dispose of a large part of their apple crop because of unsatisfactory methods in selling. His suggestion is that the surplus apples be glutted with apples from the Pacific Northwest while other markets generally smaller ones are provided for. Under a systematic method of selling Atwell's confidence is that the apple crop each year could be evenly distributed and the demand increased.

It appears that Farmer had a weak heart and refused to take an anesthetic for the operation except a local application of cocaine. It is agreed that during the afternoon or evening he fell when alone in the room and a fall into the position in which he lay was the cause of his death.

INSURGENTS ARE MILITANT

Although they admit that the efforts at conciliation are in the air the insurgents continue to sing militant songs. Representative Murdock said he had traveled all over the country in the last three months and that he knew the temper of the people.

They want the woolen schedule revised at this session of Congress regardless of whether the tariff bill is ready to report he said. "Everybody is talking wool and the revision of the tariff one schedule at a time. They are willing to wait for the tariff board on all of the tariff schedules except wool. And when the schedule is revised the people want wool cloth tagged to show the amount of wool and the amount of cotton used in it.

PEOPLE WANT ACTION

The people want Congress to do something and quit talking so much. They say we can pass the appropriation bills by holding night sessions and that we should devote the day to reducing the tariff accidents. The political interest of any man in public life who thinks it will himself be badly ruined.

The people also have their eyes on the higher courts and they do not want decisions rendered merely on technicalities.

Senator Bristol urged the President to appoint Judge Hook of the Eighth United States circuit to the Supreme Court.

Senator Bristol said he agreed with many of the President's recommendations in his message but disagreed with others. He will oppose a ship subsidy bill will earnestly advocate the fortification of the Panama Canal. The senator also will fight for a permanent tariff commission.

B. P. O. E. MOURN DEAD BROTHERS AT CEREMONIES

The annual lodge of sonors of the B. P. O. E. met yesterday afternoon by Oakland Lodge of Elks No 171. The impressive services were held before an audience which completely filled the church. Walter A. Nossinger exalted ruler of Oakland lodge presided over the opening ceremonies. U. S. Webb State attorney general delivered the oration and Judge Emmet J. Sewell of Santa Barbara gave the eulogy following which a splendid musical program was rendered.

SEWELL'S Eloquence

Judge Emmett Sewell of Santa Rosa spoke in part as follows:

"Within the last year twelve of your members have answered the final call and we somehow feel that somewhere 'in the land of the lost' they remember us as we remember them. This afternoon our thoughts are of them and brothers, how waiting here would dare to enter if it could, against the Almighty flat the portals of mystery death to again feel the touch of a vanquished hand and again hear the sound of a voice that is still. But it cannot be. From the living of all ages the secrets of death have been sacrificed and yet how fervently man has prided that the scroll of God's secrets be unfolded to his eyes, that he might read of his future destiny! How patiently science with never failing feet in its attempt to know the unknowable has climbed the rugged steps of rurality till hidden to go no farther and from its dizzy heights looked upon the skies above and upon the earth beneath till overcome by the immensity and wonderousness of God's works has cried out in the consciousness of its helplessness to be let into the secrets of the creation and the dissolution of man. But its walls have ever fallen fruitlessly upon the wastes of an infinite void!"

DEATH'S DART.

How often in the days long ago has contemplative man stood beside the surging waters of the seas and besought its ebbing tide to bear him on its bosom to the unknown Isle, where dwelt the nymphs that he might learn from them of the secret of life. And he might learn from them of the secret of God's plan only to have his prayer unanswered by the rocking laughter of the waves? How often O how often has Grief stood with unturned face yearning to call from the skies those lost here will I find them. How man has sought to know whether he will stand known there as he knows and is known here! Whether the life here will be the completion and perfection of the one commenced here or whether it will be the beginning of a new life of splendor with purposes too high to be measured by finite eyes with possibilities too stupendous to be understood by mortal mind are questions that have vexed us since we first learned that which we most desire to know.

It is the desire of the author to make clear the meaning of the law.

LADY PEGGY at MARVIN'S

Dear Jane:

Believe me, I'm now your beautiful,

Oakland, December 5, 1910.
It is to be as beautiful as she can be? Not only for her own sake, but because real beauty gives pleasure to everyone else. Well, I sought first aid to the wrinkled today and went to Marvin's for a facial massage. Mrs. Marvin has been in business here for 25 years and her shop is an institution among Oaklanders, so it is no wonder I was told to go there when I asked for the best hair store in town.

I never had a better facial massage, even in New York, and the ruby ray quite transformed me. I was so delighted with it that I arranged for a course of six treatments. You can get the six for five dollars, so it is some economy.

You know me when I get in a beauty parlor. Mrs. Marvin told me she had in her store a man from London who would marcel the hair most wonderfully. Well, I had to indulge in a wave and then I must have some of those Maria curls which are the very newest thing and are to be worn with a marcel. You wouldn't have known me when I came out.

But I'm not out yet. I got some Christmas gifts before I left. Some of those lovely rhinestone bands for evening coiffure — I'm sure the girls will like them — and a set of lovely gray combs and barette for mother. I almost bought the jet ones, they are so pretty. Then I found that they made doll wigs here, so I ordered one for my little niece. Won't she be happy over real hair that will curl?

LADY PEGGY.

OIL OUTLOOK IN STATE
FIELDS PROMISES MUCH*Consumption Equal to Production and Fuel Is Growing in Favor Every Day in World Markets

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—The consuming market for fuel oil could not look more promising. The fuel is growing in marked favor everywhere, and the marketers are cautiously reaching out to supply new demands. The market price has risen to a new high, and it is believed that the trend, though it may fluctuate, will continue to be disturbed in fact, its tendency is upward.

The late gusher reports have had no disturbing effect.

The Associated has closed contracts recently with northern railroads for an aggregate of 20,000 barrels of oil daily for ten months.

The daily output of California is 25,000 barrels, and to these lies, means that the Assocted will meet delivery to them 60,000 barrels per day, it is said that the contract price is in the neighborhood of $30,000,000 annually.

The latest record for oil production was lower than that of September, total barrels being 862,291 barrels and 6,856,028 barrels.

CONSUMPTION SHOWS INCREASE.

Consumption increased in October compared with September. In September 5,250,000 barrels was the consumption, while last month 5,704,000 barrels were used, an increase of almost 700,000 barrels a day. The daily consumption in September was 177,480 barrels and in October 181,612 barrels.

The daily production in September was 228,000 barrels, and in October 230,000 barrels, indicating the daily surplus for October fell off being $1,100 in September and only 21,322 barrels in October.

The average 20,000 barrels in storage the

BLAMES TAXI AND BLONDE FOR THEFT

Traveling Salesman Robbed of $190 by Clever Ruse of Pretty Woman.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—"The Girl in the Taxi" is the title of the reigning musical comedy sensation on Broadway, which has attracted more than ordinary attention.

"The man in the taxi" created considerable excitement on the Barbary Coast during the diminutive hours of the early morning by reason of the theft of $190 and the escape of a beautiful blonde by a clever ruse.

J. L. Price, a traveling salesman, residing at the Windsor Hotel, met the woman in the Levitt dance hall, 174 Franklin street. He lent her $50 and later at Griffon's saloon, 155 Montgomery street, she accompanied him to a back room and prevailed upon him to take $140 more of his coin out of a money belt.

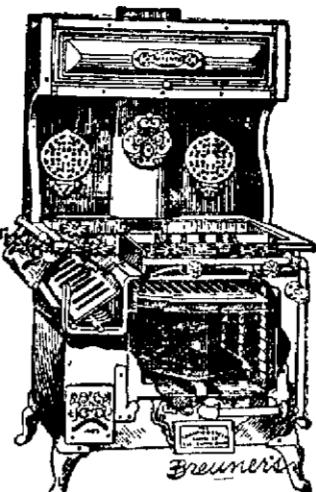

A joy ride was then proposed and a taxicab summoned. The pair proceeded to the sidewalk and the woman asked Price to enter first. In a second she slammed the door, gave a call to the chauffeur, and Price shot off in the general direction of the Cliff House, leaving his companion with the $10 behind.

He shouted to the driver to stop after he had gone several blocks, and succeeded in getting out and returning to the place. The woman had escaped and the bartenders had changed until old Price could find no trace of his money. A report of the affair was made to the telephone squad, who are searching for the thief.

A free demonstration of this wonderful invention

In our Franklin street windows we are demonstrating the celebrated Champion Interchangeable Gas Range. You can cook on this range with gas, or by a simple twist of the wrist you can cook on the same range with coal or wood.

The Champion excels the old style gas range in the fact that all gas fumes are enclosed and go up the chimney instead of into the room.

This range is sold on a five year guarantee and we will take your old coal stove in exchange. Come and see how it works.

to Every Oakland Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with backache, urinary disorders or any form of kidney trouble the advice contained in the following statement will add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing than the statement of Dr. Kidney Pills than the statement of Oakland physicians who have been permanently cured.

George R. Scott, 654 Thirty-seventh Street, Oakland, Cal., says "Doan's Kidney Pills have given entire satisfaction in my case, and for that reason I value them highly. In 1907 I gave a statement for publication regarding my experience with them, and this time I do not endorse them again. I do not care for any other medicine, as I have pain in my back and other difficulties due to disordered kidneys. No improvement was noticeable, however, and finally I discontinued the use of the doctor's medicine. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills I was impressed with the claims made for them, and procuring a supply, I began their use. Relief soon followed and almost before I realized it my back was free from pain and soreness. Since then when I have been in need of a kidney medicine I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and they have never failed to help me."

PULL OUT A HAIRThe Way to Tell Whether or Not Your Hair Is Diseased.

Even if you have a luxuriant head of hair you may want to know whether it is in a healthy condition or not. Ninety-eight per cent of the people need a hair tonic. You can make a test yourself that can tell whether your hair is healthy or not. Pull half out of your head and shave the rest at the end of the root, so that the hair is short and broken. It proves that the hair is diseased and requires prompt treatment if its loss would be avoided. If the hair is pink and full the hair is healthy.

We want everyone whose hair requires treatment to try our Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We promise that it will not cost anything if it does not give satisfactory results. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is designed to overcome dandruff, relieve scalp irritation, strengthen the hair roots, tighten the hair already in the head, grow hair and eradicate baldness.

Out of 100 cases where it was given a thorough, conscientious test, it grew hair on 93 heads, which should be sufficient proof that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic contains extraordinary remedial and hair-growing qualities. It is because of our knowledge of this preparation and our regard for it in its goodness that we want you to try it at once.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is a clean clear preparation which does not grease, gum or thicken the hair, and it has a very pleasant odor. We have it in two sizes, prices 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at The Owl Drug Co., Inc., 18th and Washington, 13th and Broadway, 18th and San Pablo.
